Thermography Information Event 2013 by InfraTec Theory and Practice of Infrared Thermography

Experience innovationslive – the slogan for the popular thermography information event by the company InfraTec, taking place in June 2013. The event targets interested people in infrared thermography, who would like to receive information about the most recent product developments and trends.

In addition to numerous possibilities of realizing complex thermography automation solutions by InfraTec, the main focus will be on the new high-performance infrared cameras of the series VarioCAM® High Definition and ImageIR® 9300. These cameras impress especially with their exceptional geometric resolution in MegaPixel-Format, the extremely high frame rates up to 4,500 Hz and the broad equipment varieties. You will also learn about the potential of the control and acquisition software as well as the highly efficient analysis options of the thermography software family IRBIS® 3 from InfraTec.

Convince yourself of our competencies in the field of infrared thermography and attend one of our events that take place in Germany, Switzerland and Austria:
